The Shanghai College of Law, Frenchtown, has been in existence about four years. It was founded by George Hsu Chien (徐謙), ex-Minister of Justice, and his wife Sung Nyi Ping (沈儀彬), (sister of Sung Pao Chang (沈寶昌), formerly Shanghai City Magistrate) who are both at present in Russia. The school depends for its upkeep on a subsidy received from Feng Yu Ziang (馮玉祥) who is a close friend of George Hsu Chien (徐謙), subscriptions from prominent Kuomintang, and fees paid by pupils. It has altogether about five hundred students, amongst whom are natives of all parts of China. The school specializes in teaching Civil and Criminal Law, Economics, Sociology, French, Russian, Japanese, and Chinese. The students have organized several societies among themselves, and a number are members of the Shanghai Students' Union. The following is a list of the most important members of the faculty of the school:-

Name & Antecedents.	Position in University.	Present Address.
George Hsu Chien (徐謙).	President.	His Shanghai home is at No. 28 Route Dollfus, but he is in Russia at present.
